

Scott County Fair Association

February 1, 2023

Dear Future Sponsor;

The Scott County Fair Association is excited to announce the dates for upcoming 2023 Scott County Fair! Mark your calendars, as the 2023 Scott County Fair will be kicked off on Sunday July 2nd with the Coming to the Fair Parade and will run through Saturday July 8th.

The Scott County Fair Association planning committee has been working hard to provide excitement and family entertainment for the citizens of Scott County and guest for 71 years. This has and will continue to be an event that is enjoyed by many families young and old, and again this year we are giving our business community the opportunity to gain promotional value from being tied into these great events.

We are beginning to offer several sponsorship packages for business and organizations alike to gain recognition for being a Scott County Fair supporter. We wanted to touch base with you to find out how we can get your company involved and find the right promotional value for you. In the coming weeks a member of the Scott County Fair Association will be reaching out to you to schedule a meeting to explain in greater detail about these promotional opportunities and work with you on how easily it will be for your company to get involved and what great value you can/will receive with your special package. Below are just a few of the great packages available:
